

10 Born Enjoyability Guidelines \BEGs

At Mount Sinai Reality\Yahweh\God\Allah gave Israel\RealityWrestlers 10 Words to show the path to life under the highest law: Love your neighbor as yourself. These 10 Words inspired 10 Modeling Quality Guidelines, deexcerpted 2020-2023 by LLoL to make these abstractions more tangible for computational modeling. The Torah defines it as the job of a king to deex Yah's 10 Words for their time in their area to cut clutter and improve logical cohesion in complex legal systems. To illustrate the versatility of Yah's 10 Words, LLoL deexed them for practical questions of sex, sex education, and sexual ethics under the Jonah Hypothesis. This work inspired the following 10 BEGs for sex and sex education in 2023:

1. Reality\God gives each person a trifacta-holy sexual identity to personally enjoy and govern responsibly. Don't manipulate humane equal personal sexual dignity, neither for others, nor for yourself, because Reality will backfire jealously. Wounds by words can beat physical harm, so trashing the sacred sensible sensual sexual preferences Reality created in the deep state of a person, is an affront to God. As all persons are born in ZION ^{Ps.87}, all have these same inalienable sexual rights to be respected by all to guard Humane Equal Dignity\HuED. These Born Enjoyability Guidelines aim to illustrate how to gentle kind reasonably navigate our sexualities to best enjoy the freedom TheCreator entrusted us with in the sacrament of sex. A person's deep inner Reality validates as last authority all questions about their sexual identity, if accessed without oversimplifying overcomplicating overreach.
2. Don't follow idols that destroy trifacta-sexual identities by drawing up mirages from the abyss of nothing. They do so by bashmoling*, a term that proved useful for debugging cases where nothing attacks Reality through the death-trifacta of oversimplifying overcomplicating overreach – destroying relationships by pushing persons into procrustean beds to let their God-given gifts rot there. Avoiding this requires learning to communicate on equal terms about nothings, sweet & sour, in order to overcome nothing's leading death-trifacta of BAAL, ASHERAH, MOLOCH, that inspired the term bashmoling. It can be defined as anything tolerating
Blindly Asserting Aggrandizing Leadership
(oversimplifies bullying in bed & beyond, fed by incurious ignorant indifference),
Automating Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope
(overcomplicates life by growing fake decision trees in bed and beyond), andOr
Mistakes Oppressing Life Obliterating Crucial Help
(overreaches by violating vital boundaries, visible or not, in bed and elsewhere).
Bashmoling is fueled by any of these mutually self-reinforcing idols that travel silently, mostly in the dark, like error-icebergs. The remaining BEGs highlight common avenues of attack on human sexuality by these bashmoling idols. Any "complete" list of their attack-vectors ("to be on the safe side") is necessarily an oversimplifying overcomplication of life: it zeroes fun, lulls into a false safety, and tempts people to overlook the only real defense: understand how nothing works.

3. Don't mixup Reality by faking happiness or pleasure if nothing was there.
Learn to talk gentle kind reasonably on an equal basis about anything by respecting reality as subjectively observed, which is the only way to objectively talk about the many inner realities of sentient beings. All these are objectively included in Reality\God, because God senses all The Views of all The Weak. A key blessing of the sacrament of sex is the opportunity it presents for learning how to gentle kind reasonably discuss even the most sensitive, difficult, and uncertain topics in any area in a way that humanely respects equal dignity.
4. Do select consciously times of rest to enjoy yourself by letting go of all tensions.
Recreate sexually and/or otherwise to refuel your inner being and reimagine your life. Learn to enjoy your inner connection to Reality all by yourself, so you don't fall for the illusion that you need others to give you exciting orgasms. If you share such times of recreation with others, make sure that bashmoling doesn't sneak in to create imbalances where either party gives too much or too little, especially if historic role-play tempts one side to overrule wishes of the other by default. There is only one true patriarch: Reality\Yahweh\God\Allah\Father\Abba\Daddy, who jealously guards against any BAAL or others who try to bashmol His precious children! Reality is loving, gracious, forgiving, but not stupid: all who ignore it by trampling all over The View of The Weak have Reality's vengeance coming at them and their children who think they can get away with benefitting from the crime of their fathers - until their bashmoling systems get trashed by Reality, usually after ca 3-4 generations (unless they are voluntarily dismantled before). Reality granted everybody the same dignity and freedom, but demands in turn to be respected by reserving 1 day each week for enjoying Reality without any other obligations. In the sacrament of ShAbbat Reality works on the miracle of replacing the I in our ShIt by Abba, so we may learn to find lasting peace in Reality. It's impossible to overcome bashmoling without honoring Reality in ShAbbat's grand Cathedral in time. It's a breach of contract with Reality to deny anybody an average of 1d/week to celebrate Reality as they see fit, including immigrants and maids on deadlines. Machines need regular maintenance. Reality demands ShAbbat for us humans.
5. Respect the equal dignity of trifecta-sexual identities of other generations, places, and cultures. Don't blindly assume. Don't force anyone into encounters they do not wish to have. Respectful and discrete offers to help others explore their interests on their own terms may be OK, but to harass others with unwanted images is a no-go. Before Born can replace Porn online, we need web standards that spell out how to do this gentle kind reasonably for all ages and cultures.
6. Don't use force to control sex because it kills people inside. Rape is sex-arson.
7. Don't break a wholeness of trust by hiding sex-partners, vital medical info, etc.
8. Don't wear down someone's No. Don't recombine 'odd life-events' to diminish, let alone steal the ability to freely reject sexual advances, especially for children!
9. Don't deny your eye to see the dignity in each person, even if undressed.
Stereotypes degrade persons to machines as Porn turns people into objects. As Porn is fueled by bashmoling, it can't be banned except by replacing it with Born, which gentle kind reasonably aids personal dignity for all in sex-positive ways.
10. Don't fall for the coveting hamster-wheels of any sexual competing. These mind-traps serve nothing by killing your joy of sex as born for you personally in Reality.
